Unitec offers a wide range of programmes, from certificates to doctoral degrees. A doctorate is the highest level of study in New Zealand (level 10), while certificates usually start at level 3. If you're studying for a bachelor's degree you would normally take courses at levels 5 to 7. The levels here represent the level at which the study is completed - e.g. a bachelor's degree is level 7, diplomas are either level 5 or level 6. These levels are also the same levels indicated throughout the National Qualifications Framework (NQF); see www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications/index.html. For immigration purposes see www.immigration.govt.nz/migrant/stream/work/skilledmigrant/.
